

Tarragona facing the sea.
The sea nourishes us, enlivens our senses, gifts us well-being, makes us sensitive to the contemplation of beauty, and invites us to the good life.

The art of good living runs through the veins of the people who inhabit the Mediterranean, the result of many cultures that have settled around this sea between lands.
Romans, Egyptians, Greeks, or Arabs... all of them have shared a taste for beauty and the good life.

Our quality of life is rooted in the balance between well-being and pleasure.

Multipli by beauty and a passion for living.
With this very passion, we have crafted unique spaces for enjoyment. That is why harmony and equilibrium prevail within this building, blending comfort with functionality, original beauty with modern design, and respect for the past with excitement for the future.

This 5 apartments building is nestled in the heart of Tarragona, by the sea.

As Mediterraneans, we delight in sharing around the table.

That's why the focal point of these apartments is an island amidst spaces

The table becomes the epicenter of social life where bonds are woven and unforgettable moments are shared among friends and family.

During each meal, we celebrate the richness of Mediterranean culture, where aromas, flavors, and colors intertwine to create a unique gas-tronomic experience

“There are no straight lines or right angles in nature.
Therefore, the art of construction must be based on the curve.”
Antoni Gaudí

A building is not merely a structure; it is a way of life.

We have preserved the original structural elements while reinforcing the entire framework, imbuing it with a contemporary touch.

The building has been equipped with all modern comforts, including an elevator, air conditioning, and high-quality windows.

At the main entrance, the original mosaics have been preserved, complemented by a modern touch with the Gervasoni Brass lamp and a wall mural.

The main door has been redesigned, drawing inspiration from the original design.

Undoubtedly, a place unlike any other in the entire city.
